

Traditional Healing Clinic in the Real Worlds

Ted Mala, MD,MPH, TH Director
Mary Sears, Tribal Doctor Apprentice
Buz Daney, Manager
Southcentral Foundation at
The Alaska Native Medical Center

ANMC 2008

Traditional Healing Staff

- A Traditional Healer must meet a number of criteria, including certification by the SCF TH Committee of Elder Advisors

Mary Asaqpan Sears

Tribal Doctor Apprentice

- Pt Hope- Village
- History
- Community

Community

- Family
- Extended Family
- Teachers and Mentors

Plant Medicine

- Plants in our area
- The plants we eat
- The Plants we use

Existing Alaska Traditional Healing Practices:

- Among Inupiaq, Yupik, Cupik, Athabaskan, Supiaq/Alutiq, Tlinget, Haida and Tsimshian nations
- The way knowledge and uses are passed from generation to generation
- Similarity among Native groups; seeking, observing and mentoring by community and Elders.

Compliment

- - Traditional Healing is perfect. I love Traditional Healing. They are good over there, they are nice. They do good. They always help me a lot. Southcentral Foundation customer March 8, 2007

Angelica

Angelica

Traditional Healing Program
Alaska Native Medical Center
Anchorage, Alaska USA

Dr. Ted Mala, Director
tmala@scf.cc

Buz Daney, Manager
gwdaney@scf.cc

Sami TV Clip

